Current Position: Consultant Head and Neck Surgeon Queen Elizabeth
Hospital Birmingham

Training: Having qualified from St Bartholomew's Hospital London, I completed my basic surgical training in a number of different hospitals in and around London. I was then appointed as an ENT Registrar at Guy's and Lewisham Hospitals. During this rotation I developed an interest in Head and Neck Surgery. I was then appointed as a Senior Registrar at Guy's and Lewisham Hospitals, with a rotation through Great Ormond Street Hospital. I took a year out of this rotation to work at the Royal Marsden Hospital as a Fellow in Head and Neck Surgery.

Positions Held: Lead Clinician for Head and Neck Cancer UHBFT (2002-2005)
Clinical Service Lead for ENT UHBFT (2007-2011)
Hon Treasurer for BAHNO (2003-2010)

Clinical Interests: My main areas of interest are in laryngeal cancer (particularly conservation surgery), Hypopharyngeal cancer, Salivary gland disease, swallowing disorders and voice disorders.

Tracheostomy: I am on the tracheostomy advisory group for Queen Elizabeth Hospital Birmingham. The group has responsibility for drawing up and renewing the Trust tracheostomy treatment and care protocols and ensuring that all staff have had adequate training to care for patients with a tracheostomy. All adverse incidents related to tracheostomy care are referred to the group for review.

I was the ENT UK representative on the Royal College of Anaesthetists Audit (NAP4) Major Complications of Airway Management March 2011.
